

2017 Spring Show

SPRING SHOW AWARDS

By Daniel Finley

There were 409 total plants entered, which is 256 cacti, and 153 other succulents, which is the most since 2012.

The sweepstakes award, for most blue, and other, ribbons, i.e., 59 plants, was won by Sig Lodwig, to whom the society will then award a paid subscription/membership for next year to the national (CSSA) society journal.

For cacti, rosettes were given as follows:

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Best Cactus of Show: | Aztekium ritteri, Judith Bernstein & Daniel Finley |
| Best Mammillaria: | Mammillaria camptotricha, Katherine McCoy |
| Special Cactus: | Echinocereus pentalophus, Margaret Todd,
and Ariocarpus trigonus, Judith Bernstein & DF |
| Best Seedling Cactus: | Sclerocactus toumeyia, Ralph Peters |
| Best Novice Cactus: | Sclerocactus heilii reevesii, Aaron Morerod |

For other succulents, rosettes were:

Best Succulent of Show: Crassula mesembryanthemoides, Brady Womack

Special Succulent: Echeveria agavoides "Ebony", Erik Gensler and Haworthia hybrid, X "Blac Form", Oleg Lagutin

Best Euphorbia: Euphorbia francoisii, Jadvyga Biskis

Best Seedling Succulent: Adenium obesum, Ralph Peters

Best Novice Succulent: Tylecodon noltei, Aaron Morerod

The judges were Suzie Andrego and Ellen Reed, from the Garden Society, and Joyce Hochtritt, from J&J, in Okla. City, and Steven Brack, DF, and Oleg Lagutin from our local society.

Clerks were Beverly Rowe, Robert Perz, C.V. Porter, Jadvyga Biskis, Joan West, and Linda Brack, and, most importantly, Margaret Todd.

Other important helpers were Truel West, Rod Getting, Penny and Gary Hoe, Sig and Doris Lodwig, Pia Louchios, Martha Parker, Cheryl and Rick Haaker, Judith Bernstein, Janet Ross, and, doubtless, others whose names I have missed.